I, the listed registrant (above), hereby declare that I have been advised of the location of the Saint Joseph’s College Vehicle Regulations and understand that it is my sole responsibility to read, understand, and abide by same any time that I bring the above listed vehicle onto the College’s property. Parking is a privilege granted by the College and may be revoked at any time for cause (see parking regulations for more information).

Parking permits are issued by Saint Joseph’s College on the express condition that the permit holder agrees to assume sole responsibility for damage to any vehicle arising from any cause, or for theft or vandalism of any vehicle or its contents (collectively, “damages”), while it is on College property. Further, the permit holder agrees to hold the College, its trustees, officers and employees harmless for any such damages. The permit holder understands College employees have no authority to assume care, custody, control, or possession of any permit holder’s vehicle while it is on College property.
