

MERCY WEEK 2023

An opportunity to engage with and reflect on the Critical Concern of Earth with a focus on water

KEYNOTE

THURSDAY, 9/21 4:30PM | ALFOND HALL

WATER, TRIBAL HISTORY, & TRIBAL SOVEREIGNTY

John Bear Mitchell, member of the Penobscot Nation, lecturer of Wabanaki Studies & Multicultural Studies at the University of Maine, Orono, and Wabanaki storyteller

VIRTUAL PRESENTATIONS

MONDAY, 9/18 | 12:30PM

WATER AND CLIMATE RESILIENCE IN MAINE

Brian Ambrette, Senior Climate Resilience Coordinator

WEDNESDAY, 9/20 | 12:30PM

THE ROLE OF FAITH COMMUNITIES IN PROTECTING WATER

Rev. Nancy Wright, Pastor for Creation Care
Kayla Jacobs, Program Manager for Youth Mobilization at the Catholic Climate Covenant

THURSDAY, 9/21 | 12:30PM

WHAT IS WATER POVERTY?

Roger Colton, Economist & expert on water affordability
Ryan Gordon, Hydrologist

FRIDAY, 9/22 | 12:30PM

WATER ACCESS FROM A GLOBAL PERSPECTIVE

Tom Hollywood, Deputy Chief of Party, at Catholic Relief Services
Sister Dale Jarvis, R.S.M.

MEET THE ORGANIZATIONS

11AM-1PM | PEARSON'S CAFE

WAVES OF CHANGE:

Meet local orgs protecting the waters

MONDAY

- FRIENDS OF SEBAGO LAKE
- LAKES ENVIRONMENTAL ASSOCIATION

TUESDAY

- ECOREPS
- SJC FREIGHT FARM

WEDNESDAY

- LITTLE SEBAGO LAKE ASSOCIATION
- FRIENDS OF CASCO BAY

THURSDAY

- CASCO BAY ESTUARY PARTNERSHIP

FRIDAY

- FRIENDS OF THE PRESUMPCOT RIVER

MERCY EXPERIENCE

WEDNESDAY, 9/20 | 6PM

SEBAGO SUNSET KAYAK

Sign up in the Student Life Office

View the full schedule online