

This match can make a real difference!

Your employer will match a percentage of your 403(b) plan contributions.

Employer matching contributions are a valuable benefit, but you have to contribute before your employer can match.

You can start contributing at any time during the year. Matching is subject to the plan eligibility rules. Benefits include:

- Employer matching contributions
- Automatic contributions by convenient payroll reduction
- Pretax contribution can reduce your current income taxes
- Tax-deferred growth until withdrawal
 - Income taxes are payable at withdrawal and federal restrictions may apply to withdrawals prior to age 59½

Don't miss out on the money your employer is offering. After all, your lifestyle during retirement could very well depend on how much you save today.
